

The Richmond City Council was once filled with people doing Chevron's bidding instead of representing the needs and aspirations of Richmond residents. Chevron grew accustomed to getting everything it wanted from the City Council regardless of the risk to those of us who live here. That is changing as people become more aware of which candidates Chevron is backing with high dollar campaign advertising.

Your vote will make a difference.

Do you support excess profits for Chevron or the health of Richmond residents?

Choose the "RICHMOND TEAM" to make Chevron be a responsible neighbor

The RICHMOND TEAM candidates have a proven record of standing up to Chevron on behalf of the community. They have worked to put pressure on Chevron to:

- Pay its fair share of taxes
- Reduce toxic pollution
- Increase refinery safety

The RICHMOND TEAM candidates have actively worked to

- Bring LBNL to Richmond
- Keep schools open
- Reduce violent crime
- Start worker owned cooperatives
- Develop job training for clean tech

The RICHMOND TEAM candidates are endorsed by: Richmond Mayor Gayle McLaughlin, Councilmembers Jovanka Beckles and Jeff Ritterman, East Bay Regional Park District board member Whitney Dotson, the Sierra Club, SEIU local 1021, the Mexican American Political Association - MAPA, the American Indian Movement West and hundreds of Richmond residents

EDUARDO MARTINEZ

Teacher for 20 years in Richmond,
Parks and Recreation Commissioner

MARILYN LANGLOIS

Mediator/Community advocate, four years on the Mayor's staff

A Better, Healthier, Cleaner Richmond is Possible

